2. What positions will my son/daughter learn at camp?

Fundamentals Camps/Mini-Camps: each offensive and defensive position, punting & long snapping, general kick/punt coverage concepts, and team offense.

Lil' Lions Academies: participants will be introduced to the quarterback, running back and wide receiver positions.

3. Does my son/daughter need a mouthpiece?

It is recommended that participants wear one, but it is not required.

4. Is my child required to bring any football equipment (i.e. Helmet, Shoulder Pads, etc.)

No. Detroit Lions Football Camps and Academies are non-contact. All necessary equipment will be provided by the Detroit Lions Football Camp. Football cleats are recommended but not required.

5. Who will be coaching the camps?

All camps will be conducted by our Detroit Lions Football Education Coaching Staff. This staff is a USA Football Heads Up Football certified staff, consisting of current high school and college coaches, past players, teachers and parents who are ALL motivated to teach and coach on a daily basis. It is their goal to provide a meaningful and positive football/character education experience!

6. Who will the Lions player/alumni be that will attend camp?

A current or former Detroit Lions player will attend 1 day of camp (Lil' Lions Academies excluded). Participants will have an opportunity to learn from this current/former player during on-field drills, a Q-A session, and during the player speech. Participants will take a group photo with the current/former player in attendance, and have an opportunity to receive an autograph if they'd like. Due to the nature of off-season schedules, the name of the current/former player in attendance may not be released until the days leading up to your camp.

7. Are parents allowed to stay during camp?

Yes. Parents are allowed to stay for the duration of camp each day. However, parents are not required to stay.

8. When will the purchased group photos from camp be received?

If you do not receive your group photo during the camp week, the photo will be sent to you with 2 weeks of the conclusion of your child's camp. To order camp group photos, please order your photos during the camp registration process.

9. I did not receive my camp confirmation e-mail. What should I do?

All summer camp confirmation e-mails are sent immediately once the registration has been completed and paid. If you don't believe you've received it, please check your spam and junk folders.
